A massive tree plantation drive was successfully organized at D.A.V. College, Kanpur, on Sunday, in accordance with the directives of the Directorate of Higher Education, Uttar Pradesh (Prayagraj), and as part of the '20 Lakh Sapling Plantation Mega-Campaign' initiated by the Uttar Pradesh government. Teachers, staff members, and volunteers from the National Service Scheme (NSS) participated enthusiastically, conveying a message of environmental conservation and a greener future.

The event commenced under the guidance of the college Principal, Prof. Manoj Johri. Distinguished guests present on the occasion included Prof. Ajit Kumar Singh (Deputy Director, Higher Education Commission), Dr. Aparna Singh, and Dilip Kumar Rathore from Shivrajpur Degree College. While planting saplings to promote environmental conservation, the guests urged everyone to plant more trees and ensure their protection. In his address, Principal Prof. Manoj Johri stated, "Trees are an invaluable gift from nature. To maintain environmental balance, every citizen should pledge not only to plant saplings but also to nurture and protect them." Led by NSS Programme Officer Dr. Chandra Saurabh, volunteers planted saplings of various species across the college campus and pledged to ensure their protection and regular care. The campaign also served to raise public awareness regarding environmental conservation, the enhancement of biodiversity, and sustainable development. Notable contributions were made by NSS volunteers Sneha Singh, Muskan Tiwari, Muskan Bharti, Abhishek Verma, Akanksha Sharma, Shreya Gaur, Shivani Sahu, Muskan Rajput, Mansi Kashyap, Srishti Gupta, Trisha Dixit, and Narayan. At the conclusion of the event, all attendees took a collective pledge to create a green and clean environment and to protect the plants.
